CIO-AW Strike Date Set

75,000 Employees Of Chrysler Corp., Scheduled to Quit

DETROIT, April 30.—(AP)—The CIO United Auto Workers today scheduled a strike May 12 of 75,000 employees of Chrysler Corp.

The walkout, if called, would be the first on a large scale in the auto industry since the costly 113-day General Motors Corp. strike of 1945-46.

The UAW-CIO asks from Chrysler a 30-cent an hour wage boost. Affected would be 18 Chrysler plants, 14 in Michigan, three in Indiana and one in California.

The union's top policy committee approved the strike deadline on recommendation of its national Chrysler director, Norman Matthews. He said the company could meet union wage demands without raising car prices and still make a profit "any business man would envy."

The UAW-CIO will continue negotiations with Chrysler until the strike date, he added.

Asked 30 Cents Increase
The UAW-CIO and Chrysler began negotiations Feb. 27 with the union asking a straight wage boost of 30 cents an hour. The current wage averages about $1.50.

The union also asked "fringe" concessions, such as better vacations, pensions and the like totaling about five additional cents.

Chrysler's only offer to date came a few days ago and was for six cents an hour. The UAW-CIO promptly rejected it and the corporation then withdrew it.

All legal barriers to a strike previously have been removed.

There was no immediate comment from the company.

Inquiry With KCK Officials

TOPEKA, Kas., April 30.—(AP)—Gov. Frank Carlson is leaving an investigation of a clash involving police and striking packing house workers in the hands of Kansas City, Kas., officials.

The 70-man Kansas City, Kas., police force, armed with clubs, raided a CIO United Packinghouse Workers Union hall and cleared the streets of strikers near the Cudahy plant last Friday.

Carlson, replying to a letter from CIO President Murray, declined yesterday to intervene in the city's investigation. Murray had called the incident a "wanton assault."

A five-member board investigating the clash will begin hearings in Kansas City today. The board was appointed by Mayor Clark E. Tucker.

Damage claims against the city have reached $206,000. Four more claims totaling $43,000 were filed yesterday. The claimants allege they were injured during the episode.

Democrats to Convention

A number of Sedalians, members of the Democratic party, are planning to attend the state Democratic meeting to be held in Jefferson City, beginning Monday morning. Frank W. Hayes, of Sedalia, is state chairman.

Some will attend the entire convention, others plan to be there Sunday, the day before the opening, while some will spend part of Monday there.

The purpose of the convention is to elect delegates to attend the national convention in Philadelphia in July.

Among Pettis countians going to Jefferson City are: Mrs. R. T. Phelan, Mrs. George F. Chambers and son, Jack, Mrs. John Perdue, Miss Anna King, Mrs. John Devine, John Connor, Emmet Sullivan, Martin Gaudin, Wm. H. Wheeler, Miss Alice Scott, Mrs. Lloyd Kennan, Mrs. Vivian McMullin, Mr. and Mrs. D. Kelly Scruton, Jimmy Reed, Julian H. Bagby, A. L. Bohling, Wm. F. Brown, Frank W. Hayes, Dan Robinson, Mrs. Blanche Sayles, Carl Abbott.

Negro Woman Dies of Burns

Mrs. Laura Nell Hutchison, 32-year-old Negro woman, wife of James Hutchison, two and one-half miles north of La Monte, died at Hospital No. 2 in Sedalia at 12:15 o'clock this morning from burns received at her home about 5:00 o'clock Thursday night. Mrs. Hutchison was trying to start a fire in her cook stove with kerosene when the kerosene can exploded in her hands. She was brought immediately to Sedalia to the hospital, where she died a few hours later.

Surviving besides her husband are three children, Helen, Lily and Nellie, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Russell, of Warrensburg.

Funeral services will be held at the Parker Home in La Monte at 2:00 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Burial will be in the La Monte cemetery.

Garry Moore to Take Breakfast Broadcast

HOLLYWOOD, April 30.—(AP)—Garry Moore signed today to take over the late Tom Breneman's popular "Breakfast in Hollywood," starting next Monday.

The master of ceremonies of "Take It or Leave It" will continue with the latter program, and will operate the breakfast show under the familiar Breneman format, the American Broadcasting Co. said in making the announcement.

Breneman died unexpectedly Wednesday, shortly before he was to go on the air. Funeral services will be held at Forest Lawn Memorial Park in nearby Glendale, at 11 a. m. tomorrow.

Rival Parades Mark May Day Observances

Red Celebrations In Moscow; Anti-Red Gatherings Elsewhere

By the Associated Press
Rival parades of extreme left-wingers and anti-Communist groups will mark tomorrow's May day observance in Western European countries and a number of U. S. cities.

In Moscow and in Eastern European countries within the Soviet orbit, there will be only single Communist-dominated celebrations on the international labor holiday.

A pre-May Day Communist demonstration brought violence in tense Trieste, where police used fire hoses and pistols to break up the mass meeting.

Left-wing labor groups including Communists in some cases will march in several American cities—among them New York, Philadelphia, Chicago and Los Angeles.

Also "Loyalty Day"

But May 1 also has been designated as "Loyalty day" by the Veterans of Foreign Wars. This organization will stage parades of its own which it hopes will overshadow the left-wingers.

There also will be "Pray for Russia" meetings tomorrow throughout the United States. The gatherings will be sponsored by the Christians, a lay organization composed mostly of Catholics. Prayers will be offered for the Russian people and those in Soviet-dominated lands.

Rival Demonstrations
In Western European nations, moderate left groups have refused to march with the Communists in the traditional labor parades.

Thus there will be rival demonstrations in London, Paris, Oslo, Berlin, Brussels and other cities. The huge Moscow parade, to be reviewed by Premier Stalin, is expected to go on for hours through streets gaily decorated with red bunting and dotted with huge pictures of Soviet leaders.

Suspended for 'De-Skirting'

NORTH BEND, Ore., April 30.—(AP)—Six high school senior girls were suspended yesterday as the school board moved to end a 40-year-old "de-skirting" tradition.

Principal Herb Armstrong said for 40 years it has been the practice at some time during the school year, usually at the lunch hour, for senior girls to pull the skirts from freshmen girls. Its counterpart—"de-pantsing"—has been the penalty of Freshman boys at the hands of the Senior boys, although this was not involved in the current instance.

Armstrong said the school board was determined to bring the tradition to an end. He said North Bend was apparently the only school in the state where that type of hazing existed.

The students suspended are ordered to stay off the school grounds for two weeks. After that time, on a promise of good behavior, they will be reinstated, Armstrong said.

Soft Coal Production Up

WASHINGTON, April 30.—(AP)—The nation's soft coal production jumped to 11,350,000 tons last week, the first time it had been as high as normal since the miners walked out March 15 in their pension dispute with the operators.

Production the previous week was 7,715,000 tons. In the corresponding week of 1947 it was 12,825,000.

Men's Choral Club Pleased Large Crowd

Appreciation Shown By Close Attention, Generous Applause

The Sedalia Men's Choral club presented its spring concert at 8:15 o'clock Thursday night in the Smith-Cotton high school auditorium, before a capacity crowd.

The program was under the direction of Abe Rosenthal. Charles Hansford is the assistant director.

Audience attention was unusually good and applause expressed approval as a varied and interesting selection of numbers was given.

Mr. Rosenthal is an accomplished musician and is experienced in directing instrumental and choral organizations. He is the director of the Sedalia Symphony orchestra and in addition has appeared before various civic clubs through out the state.

Colorful Appearance
A round of applause greeted the club members as they filed to their places in the center of the stage. Members of the club were appearing for the first time in their new gray coats, dark trousers and maroon bow ties, making a colorful appearance.

Each number was exceptionally well presented and the club was conducted very ably by Charles Hansford on "The Gospel Train" in the first group.

The audience was hushed as the numbers were given, but reacted with light amusement as the barbershop quartet gave humorous selections. The quartet sang "Carolina Moon," followed by a "request" number "Sweet Sue." As a closing song, they presented "If You Knew Susie," with barbershop quartet "Antics."

An Amusing Touch
Mr. Rosenthal and Z. Lyle Brown gave an interlude of piano music with an amusing touch which was well received by the audience.

The group showed an ability to sing fully as well without the piano accompaniment as with it, which they demonstrated in their fourth group of selections.

Proceeding the final group of songs, the club sang its theme song "All Through the Night," with Neal Powers in the solo part.

Following is the program which was presented:

1. I Love a Parade (Harold Arlen). The Green Cathedral (Hahn-Huntley). John Peel, (a traditional Scottish air). The Gospel Train (Nobel Cain).

2. Spanish Dance (Rehfeld). Indian Love Call from Rose Marie (Stothart)—Violin solo by Abe Rosenthal with Lillian Fox as accompanist.

3. The Song of the Jolly Roger (Chudleigh-Candish). Serenade (Schubert). The Gospel Ship (Shannon-Hector-MacCarthy). The Lord's Prayer (Malotte-Deis) When Day is Done (Katcher, special arrangement).

4. Sweet Roses of Morn. If I Had My Way. Mandy Lee. I Love You Best of All.

5. Barbershop quartet. Neal Powers, first tenor; Dick Snow, second tenor; Z. Lyle Brown, baritone; Robert Austin, bass.

6. Nola. (Arndt-Burns). The Winter song (Bullard). Wooden Soldiers (Jessel). My Wild Irish Rose (Olcott). Al Domingue soloist.

Whiffenpoof Song (Minnigrode-Pomeroy-Galloway). Battle Hymn of the Republic (Steffe-Ringwald). Lillian Fox and Chas. Hansford at the piano.

Members of the club are: First tenors—Neal Powers, Charles Hanna, John W. Hill, Paul Benson, Al Domingue and William Jackson; second tenors, Rev. William C. Bessmer, George Lockett, Dr. J. W. Maunders, Harold Hausman, R. F. Neel, Dr. H. O. Wilbur, Addison Taylor and David Mahknen; first basses: Robert Austin, Z. Lyle Brown, Lloyd Knox, Charles Hansford, Charles Maggard and Dick Snow; second basses—Fred Brink, Rev. H. U. Campbell, Ed Martin, Irving Moore, K. A. Buchholz, Jim Denney, O. W. Wiley and Dean Bindrup. Lillian Fox was the accompanist.

Officers of the club are: Charles Hanna, president; Ed Martin, vice president; Robert Austin, secretary-treasurer and Z. Lyle Brown, librarian.

Tests For Patrol Jobs

JEFFERSON CITY, April 30.—(AP)—Sixty-two applicants for jobs with the Missouri Highway Patrol took mental and physical tests here today. The successful ones will be eligible for appointment as troopers when vacancies occur.

'Tag Day' to Raise Funds to Help Finance Freedom Train

Saturday will be tag day in Sedalia to help raise funds to finance the Freedom Train—the train which is carrying to American citizens a precious cargo, 100 of America's most prized historic documents—and which will be in Sedalia June 10.

Relax Over Ice Cream Sodas After Threatening Teacher

NEW YORK, April 30.—(AP)—Four soda-sipping teen-agers were accused today of blasting a pretty young high school teacher's home with gunfire after a telephoned death threat warning her not to teach anybody in mathematics.

A 14-year-old freshman desperately afraid of failing an algebra exam organized the raiders in a candy store, police said. They used an automobile stolen for the occasion and loaded with seven .22 calibre automatic rifles taken from a Coney Island shooting gallery.

At least 26 shots peppered the teacher's home in Brooklyn and two adjoining houses.

A 12-year-old boy was left behind to phone the warning—a few minutes before the burst of bullets.

Thought Up Another Scheme
The shooting occurred Wednesday night. The boys were arrested yesterday, authorities said, because the ringleader had thought up a third scheme to pass his algebra exam and escape his father's wrath.

Police said Anthony Durso, grimy-faced and clad in dungarees and a plaid cowboy shirt, got a smart neighborhood youngster to be his proxy at examination.

Police, questioning 165 of the teacher's pupils, uncovered the masquerade during the tests and quickly coraled the five other boys, the oldest 16 years of age.

Relaxed Over Sodas
Throughout it all, the teacher, blonde Margaret Jokiel, 24, went quietly about her examination duties under police guard.

Police were told the raid ringleader ordered "Now shoot if you're not chicken-hearted," and the car, its license plates and headlights covered with handkerchiefs, slid slowly past the teacher's home, with four guns blazing.

After the shooting the four boys relaxed over ice cream sodas. Durso and the other raiders under 16 face juvenile delinquency charges, and the 16-year-old will be charged with assault.

Lowry City Man Killed When Car Overtakes

OSCEOLA, Mo., April 30.—(AP)—J. W. Martin, 19, of Lowry City, Mo., was killed instantly early today when he was thrown from his overturning car four miles north of here on Highway 13, reported St. Clair County Sheriff Logan Perry.

Sheriff Perry said that no other car was involved and that the wreckage was discovered by a passing motorist, Forrest Goodrich, a funeral director here.

Woman States She Lived Next Door to Hitler

WIESBADEN, Germany, April 30.—(AP)—There is a woman here who says she lived next door to Adolf Hitler last year on President Roosevelt street in Liegnitz.

The woman, Frau Dora Mai, told her story to American military government officials here. They are skeptical; say it is Russia's problem because Liegnitz is in Polish-occupied Silesia.

Frau Mai's story:
"He has a triangular mustache now and he grows sideburns, too. But it is he, all right. I lived next door to him for a year in Liegnitz. We both lived on President Roosevelt strasse."

"It is my moral duty to tell you this. Hitler is too smart for the Russians. They don't know that he is living there on their doorstep. He is living with a small, dark woman. She isn't Eva Braun. Sometimes he poses as a schoolmaster, sometimes as a Polish army lieutenant."

Has New Party
"He has formed a new party—the TPZ. I don't know what it stands for. . . . I never asked him if he was Hitler. I just knew it."

Frau Mai is one of thousands of refugees flowing in here from the east. She is the first to claim that Hitler is alive in Germany. Other persons claim to have seen him in foreign countries since he disappeared in the flames of Berlin just three years ago.

American officers heard Frau Mai, through to the end, patiently, then they said:
"Well, it's a Russian worry. Let them catch him."

Sedalians at the White House

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Trader of Meadowood Farm will return Saturday evening from Washington, D. C. where Mr. Trader attended the annual meeting of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

Thursday morning Mr. and Mrs. Trader were guests at the White House and spent a few minutes visiting with President Harry S. Truman. Leaving Truman's office they met John W. Snyder, Secretary of the Treasury and spent a few minutes with him.

They knew Mr. Snyder in Sedalia when he resided here while liquidating the Citizens National Bank and the Sedalia National Bank.

I. H. Reed and John F. Zander, who also attended the meeting from Sedalia, started home today, making the trip by automobile.

Considering Rowe, Jr. To Head Committee

WASHINGTON, April 30.—(AP)—James Rowe, Jr., former White House staff member and government attorney, was reported today among those being considered for the job of executive director of the Democratic national committee.

Gael Sullivan has resigned the post, effective May 10, to become executive vice president of the Theater Owners of America. Rowe, 38, is now a member of the Hoover commission investigating reorganization of the government departments.

94,809 Babies Born Last Year In Missouri

More Than Any Year Heretofore; Expect Decline This Year

JEFFERSON CITY, April 30.—(AP)—Missouri mothers had more babies last year than ever before—94,809 of them.

But the war and postwar baby boom is about over. Elwood Musselman, director of statistics for the State Health Division, believes the birth rate will decline this year.

The 1947 rate was 24.6 live births per 1,000 estimated population. Last year's deaths in Missouri totaled 44,557, or about 11.6 per 1,000.

Thus the state gained slightly more than 50,000 population from the natural increase—the excess of births over deaths. It was the first time in Missouri's history the births numbered more than twice the deaths.

Death Rate Not Alarming
The death rate rose from 11.3 in 1946 to 11.6 last year but Musselman says the increase is not great enough to be alarming.

Heart diseases were the big killers. They caused 14,559 deaths. Cancer was second with 5,869. Intercranial vascular lesions (such as cerebral hemorrhage and apoplexy) were third with 4,392 and accidents climbed to fourth leading cause with 2,871.

Included in the accidental deaths were 788 who died in automobile accidents.

Other leading causes of death last year and the number of cases: Fifth, nephritis 2,679; sixth, malformations and infant diseases 2,116; seventh, pneumonia 2,109; eighth, tuberculosis 1,308; ninth, Diabetes mellitus 958; tenth, arteriosclerosis 834.

Influenza killed 374, syphilis 380 and acute poliomyelitis 19.

Births continued to show less and less danger for mother and baby. The maternal deaths rate dropped from 14 per cent 1,000 live births in 1946 to 1.3 in 1947. The infant death rate declined from 33 per 1,000 live births to 31.5.

All of the figures are from the State Bureau of Vital Statistics provisional report of 1947 births and deaths.

Republicans Attending State Convention

Delegates from Sedalia who have gone to St. Louis to attend the Republican convention to be held there Saturday are John W. Palmer, A. H. Wilks, Carl G. Schrader, A. E. Brockman and Mrs. Opal Valentine.

Among others who will attend the convention are Mr. and Mrs. George H. Miller, Mrs. A. H. Wilks, Miss Juanita Young, Judge and Mrs. J. W. Kesterson, W. D. Smith, Dick Keenan and Carl F. Urban.

'Shut up' Order Banged Out by Chief Justice

Dramatic Close to Taft-Hartley Act Test Hearing

By Paul M. Yost

WASHINGTON, April 30.—(AP)—An angered Chief Justice Vinson, his gavel banging out virtual "shut up" orders, brought to a dramatic close late yesterday the Supreme Court's first hearing of a Taft-Hartley Act test case.

Vinson, squirming in his high-backed chair at Associate Justice Frankfurter's questioning of a CIO lawyer, broke into the attorney's reply to say emphatically: "Your time has expired!"

That sharp statement amounted to an order to attorney Lee Pressman to "shut up and sit down." It also told Frankfurter in effect to "shut up"—the presiding justice wants no more questions and no more answers.

No Precedent
The tense moments that followed were almost without precedent in the cathedral-like tribunal.

Frankfurter had been contending that the government and CIO had joined hands to bring before the court a case involving constitutionality of the labor act's ban on political spending by unions.

The CIO, which maneuvered the case by an intentional violation, and the government, which is defending the spending ban, had been allotted a total of two hours for oral arguments.

The white signal light indicating five minutes of time left had long since turned to red. But Frankfurter persisted in his questioning.

When Vinson stepped in, the CIO lawyer looked at Frankfurter, bowed to the chief justice and sat down.

Called For Recognition
But Jesse Climenko, a special assistant to Attorney General Clark, jumped to his feet. He called to Vinson for recognition. The usually calm chief justice bit his lips, then said once again: "Your time has expired."

Frankfurter had stressed his contention—that the CIO and the government had cooperated to get an early Supreme Court ruling—to point up his interpretation of the legal situation confronting the justices. This interpretation was that the tribunal has been asked to decide a constitutional issue on abstract questions, rather than on an actual argument.

Federal Judge Ben Moore of Charleston, W. Va.—sitting in U. S. District Court here on March 15—ruled the political spending ban unconstitutional. Moore thereupon dismissed indictments against the CIO and its president, Philip Murray.

Recover Watch After 21 Years

TULSA, Okla., April 30.—(AP)—Tulsa police finally recovered F. F. Koone's stolen watch.

It was almost 21 years ago—on May 14, 1927—that Koone, a guest at a local rooming house, reported the theft of his 19-jewel pocket-watch.

Sergt. A. A. Leitch of the stolen goods division located its whereabouts last night as he checked the daily reports submitted by Tulsa's licensed pawnbrokers. One broker had listed the long-missing watch as pawned to him.

The timepiece was identified through the police station's intricate filing system.

Now police are seeking Koone. The rooming house was demolished long ago, and he's not listed in the city directory.

Jewelry Worth About $800,000 Is Stolen

HAMBURG, Germany, April 30.—(AP)—Jewelry worth about $800,000 has been stolen from Celle Castle in the British zone, German police said today.

The jewelry was part of a collection of the German State museum of Berlin. It has disappeared since inventory was taken last summer, the police said.

No Paper Collection Sunday

The paper collection which was to have been held Sunday, sponsored by the Optimist club, has been postponed until a later date.

'Little David' Hopes to Proceed Under Present Guardianship

POPLAR BLUFF, April 30.—(AP)—"Little David" Walker, the 13-year-old evangelist who has been ordered along with his manager, the Rev. Raymond G. Hoekstra, to appear before Referee Lawrence M. H. Linds in Indianapolis, Ind., juvenile court May 14, told a congregation here last night he hopes the court will permit continuation of his present guardianship arrangement.

The referee ordered Hoekstra to appear with Little David after the boy's parents Mr. and Mrs. Jack Walker of Chicago, complained that the young evangelist's capabilities are being commercialized at expense of his health and education.

Little David opened a four-night evangelistic meeting before a capacity crowd at the National Guard armory last night.

Franklin Coin Out Today

PHILADELPHIA, April 30.—(AP)—A new half-dollar, honoring Benjamin Franklin, went into circulation today.

The coin, designed by the late John Sinnock, who sculptured the Roosevelt dime and purple heart medal, is the idea of Mint Director Nellie Tayloe Ross.

"It is really appropriate that the Franklin half-dollar becomes a reality at this time," said Mrs. Ross.

"He was the great apostle of thrift and his picture on the coin should remind people that in this time of world unrest it would be a good policy to husband our resources."

Important Events In The World Today

CHICAGO, April 30.—(AP)—A federal mediator seeking to head off a nationwide rail tieup reported today both labor and management are "unyielding" in their positions on the wage dispute.

Chairman Frank Douglass of the National (Railway) Mediation Board issued a statement after a morning conference with management representatives. It was his first meeting with the railroads in the current last ditch attempt to avert a strike called for May 11.

"Both sides are unyielding," Douglass told reporters. "I don't know if we can get both sides together for direct negotiation. We might be able to, if we could narrow down the issues."

Before the conference Douglass said that if the strike is averted, it will be only through direct negotiation between the disputants.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—(AP)—Senator Wherry (R-Neb.) said the Senate may be unable to act today on the 70-group Air Force plan "because several persons have asked me to object."

The Senate Appropriations committee late yesterday rushed approval of the House-passed $233,000,000 bill. Chairman Bridges (R-N.H.) said he would ask the Senate to suspend its rule in order to act on it today. That can't be done if any Senator objects.

Wherry, acting Republican leader, said:
"I will confer with Senator Bridges and we may be able to work out something

Ancient Restoration

Leaves Its Mark

By William E. Gilroy, D. D.

What of the Jews in their ancient religious history in the Holy Land that they once occupied free from the dangers and difficulties that beset them in Palestine.

Such a period in the life of Israel followed the return from the exile and captivity in Babylon, about 500 years before the coming of Jesus Christ.

The story of it is in the Bible books of Nehemiah and Ezra, with much light on the life of the people and their social, moral and religious conditions and problems to be found in the later prophetic books of the Old Testament, such as Hagai, Micah and Malachi.

That restoration of an exiled people was not accomplished without danger and difficulties. It required the genius, courage, and determined idealism of a military leader like Nehemiah, as well as the reforming zeal of a commanding religious leader like Ezra.

Not all the Jewish exiles returned from Babylon, when the rise of a new dynasty under Cyrus made the return possible. After 50 years or more of exile few of the organized exiles were capable of returning. And many of them, under the comparative freedom they had enjoyed in Babylonian captivity, had greatly prospered and chose to remain there. So successful were those that remained that they established a Jewish life, with schools and literature, the Babylonian Talmud, that survived all changes of rulers and dynasties and lasted until the 11th century of our Christian era.

The Jews who returned to their homeland must have been somewhat of the type of Zionists today, though their zeal seems to have been deeply for their fathers.

Some conception of their passionate zeal may be found in the 137th Psalm.

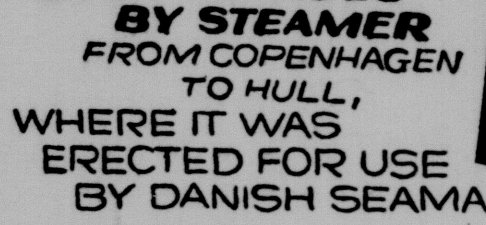

In all this history there are pages of inspirations that have kept Judaism vital through the ages. The restoration was destined to have a profound influence upon the world and an intimate relation to the rise and spread of Christianity.

Many non-Jews in the Pagan world were drawn to Judaism by its superior morality. These converts, known as "proselytes," were among those to whom Paul successfully appealed with his conviction that Judaism found its fulfillment in Christ. Both Judaism and Christianity have survived and they are both in the books we call the Bible.

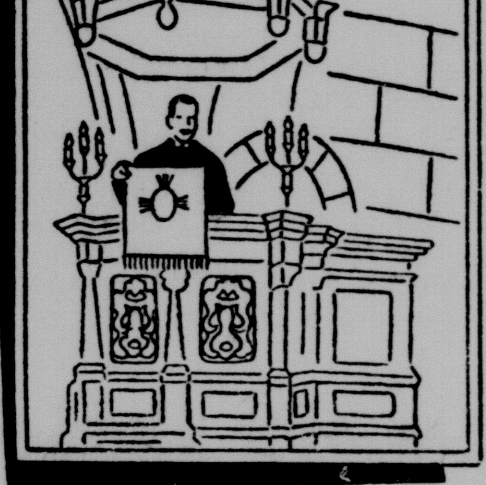

The hope of the world is in that book and in the light and life that it offers mankind. "Watchman, what of the night?" And the coming day.

Sermon In A Candle

"Observe this candle," said the old man to the child. "See how brightly and steadily it burns. And now, tell me what spiritual lessons you see in it." The child pondered a long time, and finally confessed: "I'm afraid it doesn't tell me anything."

The old man patted the child's head and smiled. "Not now, perhaps, but some day you will find how much—how very much—a candle can teach you."

He drew the child closer to him. "Notice," he said, "how all the time it grows smaller and smaller. It is giving up its life so that it may spread light and warmth and good cheer. Well now, doesn't that make you reflect that all good Christians are called to do the same—to sacrifice themselves willingly and cheerfully so that the world may be a brighter and more beautiful place to live in?"

The man looked into the child's wondering eyes. "Reflect," he urged, "on the tears of wax running down the sides of the candle. They symbolize the tears of contrition shed by men. And consider how patiently and faithfully it continues to burn. Doesn't that suggest humility, just as the bright flame always pointing to heaven makes us think of faith and constancy and hope?"

As the child nestled closer to him, the old man went on:

"This little candle is a humble symbol of Christ Himself. The wax is His sacred body, the wick is His soul, and the flame His divinity. It should teach us to imitate Him by making ourselves a strong and good and far-reaching influence in the lives of others.

"Remember what it says in the Book of Proverbs: 'The spirit of man is the candle of the Lord. Our own little candles may seem to us very small and insignificant. But think how brightly even a single flame can shine where there is darkness, sin and misery. Think how bright the world would be if millions of men everywhere heeded the words of Matthew: 'Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works and glorify your Father which is in heaven.'"

All the World Likes to Sing, Though Some Are Tuneless

Singing gives the most satisfaction of anything in the world, no matter how it sounds. People the world over like to sing and the most fun comes from group singing. That is why the Men's Choral Club is such a success. It is a club in which a group of men get together and put their very hearts into the thing they like to do best.

It doesn't seem to make any difference whether a person has a God given talent for singing or not they enjoy singing just as much—of course people who hear them don't, but that doesn't matter.

A little girl was once singing in church at the top of her voice when an elderly lady turned to someone beside her and said: "That little girl has lost the tune." The family, who knew the child never was able to sing a note, teased her for years telling her the little girl never found the tune. She didn't. She never could sing, but she never stopped trying.

Christian Home Week

The First Baptist church will observe "Christian Home Week" May 2-9. This week has been planned for the interest of every family. The program will be inaugurated Sunday morning, during the Sunday school hour, with the entire Sunday school assembling in the auditorium for the opening of Sunday school at 9:30 A. M. At the morning worship service the pastor will preach on the subject "What Makes a Good Home?" and Sunday evening on the subject "Giving Christ His Place in the Home." On Wednesday evening at 7:30 p. m. will be "Family Prayer Meeting Night." Families are invited to come together for this special service, which will include a devotional period built around the theme: "The Home and the Church." This will be followed by a sound film.

Sunday, May 9th, the morning worship will be dedicated to all mothers, with the pastor speaking on the subject "A Mother Worthy of Honor." The evening service will be dedicated to all the couples Dr. Croxton has married during his pastorate in Sedalia. He will speak on the subject "Building a Home." Special music will be furnished throughout the week for each service.

Vesper Service Sunday
An organ vesper service will be held at the North Street Methodist church in Marshall Sunday evening at 6:00 o'clock. Taking part in the program will be the choir of the church and Mrs. T. H. Jefferson, organist of the Centennial Methodist church in Kansas City. Mr. Jefferson is a former Sedalian.

R. C. Moore is pastor of the church.

Arthur Smith Funeral Service Saturday Morning
Funeral services for Arthur A. Smith, who died Wednesday morning at Hospital No. 2, Kansas

City, will be held Saturday afternoon at the Ferguson Funeral Home, with the Rev. L. D. Harde-man, pastor of the Memorial Baptist church, officiating.

Burial will be at Versailles, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Estill Perkins have received word that Mr. Perkins' aunt, Mrs. Mollie Blount, who is with a nephew, Albert Faulwell, Jr., and family of Baldwin Park, Calif., is quite ill. Mrs. Blount went to California last fall to make her home with the Faulwell family.

The Syracuse P. T. A. sponsored a bake sale Saturday, proceeds amounting to $61.50 part of which was used to finish paying for venetian blinds purchased for class rooms on the west side of the school building.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Williams took Mrs. Williams' cousin, Mary Hagerman, who has been visiting them, to Barnett Thursday and made a visit with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Willis.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Ford had as their guest last week Mr. Ford's sister, Mrs. George Carlson, of Chicago, Ill. Mr. and Mrs. Ford and Mrs. Carlson accompanied Mrs. Truman Nelson home Wednesday evening after she had spent a day with them and they stayed until Thursday evening. Mrs. Carlson left Friday, stopping in St. Louis to visit relatives on her way home.

Pfc. Otto Williams left Thursday after spending a short furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Williams. He was accompanied by Pfc. Cecil Creugh, of Mora. They went to Fort Lawton, Wash., and will soon be sent to Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Johansen and son, Roy J., had as their guests last week their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Wyatt of Colorado Springs, Colo.

The music class of the Syracuse school was among the 56 guests entertained at the home of their teacher, Mrs. George Pedigo, of Tipton, Tuesday evening. Those from Syracuse who assisted Mrs. Pedigo in entertaining, were Mrs. Tommy Veulemans, Mrs. Roy Mowrey and Mrs. James Anthony.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Smith visited Friday evening with Mr. Smith's brothers, Atlas, Paul and Theodore Smith, of Jamestown.

Mrs. Clara Huff visited Monday

Lou Boudreau Hitting .519 For Indians

Tops in League
With 14 Safeties
In 27 At Bats

By Jack Hand
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Lou Boudreau, batting .519 for his unbeaten Cleveland Indians, is a solid argument for the survival of the player-manager in the major baseball league.

Last of the big leaguers who still combine the two difficult jobs, Boudreau almost lost his portfolio last fall. Only a flood of mail from aroused Tribe fans induced owner Bill Veeck to call off a tentative trade with St. Louis.

Instead of a trade, Boudreau was signed to a "virtually a two-year contract," according to Bill Veeck.

The "cares" of bossing the Indians to six straight wins have weighed so heavily on Lou that he has been able to hit safely only 14 times in 27 at bats. This is tops in the league. With nine runs batted in, he is tied for the lead. His shortstop work remains unchanged.

Need 3 Wins to Tie Record

Boudreau pounded out four straight hits, including a double and home run, in yesterday's 5-2 victory over the St. Louis Browns. The team now needs only three more triumphs to tie the modern day record for wins at the start of the season.

The defeat left the Browns still in the first division, however, with four victories and four losses. Right hander Cliff Fanning was charged with the defeat. The Indians made all of their runs and 12 of their 13 hits off Fanning in the seven innings he worked.

The New York Yankees got their Joe Dimaggio-Joe Page combination working for a 5-4 edge over Washington in 10 innings. The result moved the Yanks into second place.

Homers by George McQuinn, Charley Keller and Yogi Berra weren't enough for the champs. They had to go an extra frame and finally won on Dimaggio's long fly with the bases loaded and home out.

Page relieved Frank Shea, who was in trouble again by giving seven walks. Left-handed Joe Page picked up his first win on four hitless innings.

Boston cut loose with a barrage of homers—one each by Ted Williams, Sam Mele, Joe Dobson and Jake Jones—to smother Philadelphia, 11-5, although they were outbatted by the As.

Eddie Mayo's error on Don Kolloway's grounder enabled Chicago to down Detroit, 5-4, for their second victory. Catcher Aaron Robinson, had a perfect day for the Sox with three hits, including a homer and double.

Brooklyn Whips Giants

Ebbets Field proved to be the same old unhappy hunting ground for the New York Giants. Brooklyn smashed the leaders' six-game winning streak with a 17-7 shellacking.

Prison Ward, Dodger rookie first baseman, homered with the bases loaded and Pete Reiser drove in five runs with a homer and triple. Pittsburgh climbed into second place on another fine mound job by the veteran Elmer Riddle. He scattered seven Chicago hits for his second win, 4-2.

Rookie Hank Sauer enjoyed a field day in Cincinnati's 14-inning 5-4 nod over St. Louis. Sauer tied the score with a homer in the eighth and won it in the 14th with a single. He had four hits, boosting his average to .364.

Wilks Drops First Game Since 1945

The game was the Redbirds' first since last Sunday. The defeat was their third straight and their fourth in five starts.

Ted Wilks, the third Cardinal pitcher in the three-hour contest, recorded his first setback since late in the 1945 season. He had won 12 consecutive games before Sauer's hit broke the string.

Three of the Cardinals' seven hits were by Stan Musial, who drove in all the Redbird runs. He homered with a man on in the fourth inning and singled across two more runs in the fifth.

The defeat dropped the Redbirds under the 500 mark for the first time this season.

Freak homers by Dick Sisler and Harry Walker enabled the Phillies to edge the Boston Braves 4-2.

Seven Are Entered in Ky. Derby

Possibility That Only Six May Run Tomorrow

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 30—(P)—Seven three-year-olds were entered today for the 74th running of the Kentucky Derby, the smallest field since 1914 for America's premier racing classic.

There was a possibility, however, that only six might face the barrier at the 4:30 p. m. (CST) post-time tomorrow. The doubtful entry was Galeo, owned by Charles O'Neil of Miami, Fla., whose trainer, Tommy Tault, indicated the colt would go only if the track is muddy.

The forecast calls for considerable cloudiness, warmer and possibly scattered showers.

All the others, whose entry had been assured for days, were in with the top-heavy favorite Calumet farm pair of Citation and Coaltown heading the list.

The Calumets weren't the first this morning, however, as R. W. McIlvain's Billings became the initial entry shortly after the box was opened at the Churchill Downs secretary's office.

Citation and Coaltown followed shortly, then came William L. Brant's Escadr, Galeo, Ben F. Whitaker's My Request and Mrs. John Payson Adams' Grandpere in order.

If only six start in the $100,000-added event at a mile and one quarter, it will be the smallest field since Pink Star won over five others in 1907.

The winner tomorrow, if six start the race, will collect $83,400. If seven go, it will be $84,400. Owners must pay $1,000 to start in the Derby.

Five of the seven are Kentucky bred colts, but Escadr is a Marylander and Grandpere a California horse.

Sport Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, April 30—(P)—Spherical Steve Owen and stream lined Tim Mara were fumbling about the office television receiver, looking for a baseball game that wasn't there. "I'd like to see a few innings," Steve grouched. "I have to go up to Columbia for my one-man spring practice." "Isn't that something new?" "It sure is," Owen assented. "It probably is the first time a pro football team ever had spring drills. Actually I have two men, Paul Governali and Joe Sulatis, but Governali is doing most of the work. He's lighter now than when the season ended. . . . We're going to use a lot of winged-T stuff this year now that we have the men for it." Steve added: "I think Governali is the one who can make it go. . . . We're going to have a good passing team with Paul and Tony Minisi and Charley Conerly. I'm pretty sure he'll sign with us when his college baseball season ends — and fellows like Joe Scott and Bill Swacki to receive. . . . The line won't be big; a lot of 210-215 pounders, can move."

The "L" Of It

"You might say that we have signed 15 of our first 20 draft choices," interjected Mara, "and I don't think we offered them so much more money than the All America conference. . . . Of course, Admiral Ingram says they don't need to sign players this year because they have all the good ones. . . . But what are they going to do in Chicago? . . . They have Ed McKeever there and they are already feeling sorry for Geo. Halas and his 'old men.' All he has is Luckman, Lujack and Layne. I've learned you should never feel sorry for Halas—especially not with those three fellows."

Handle With Care

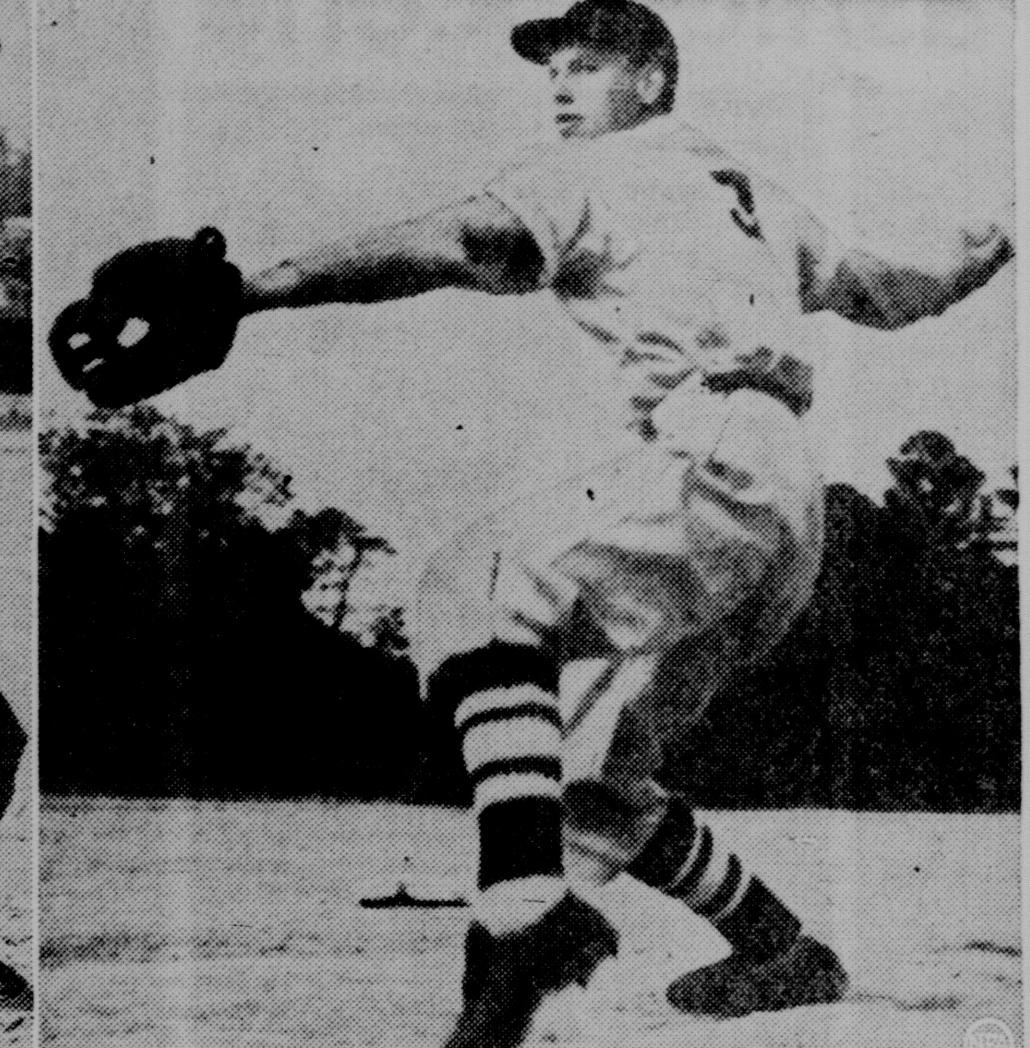

When the Red Sox visited Philadelphia the other day, a writer phoned Joe McCarthy to ask his starting pitcher. Joe gave the name, but five minutes later he called the writer back at his office. . . . "Just checking," McCarthy explained. "This is my first trip in this year and I didn't want somebody to be pulling a fast one on you or me."

Locke Leads in Capita Open

WASHINGTON, April 30—(P)—South African Bobby Locke, sparkling 65 on his first day scorecard, led the way today into the second round of the 2-hole National Capital Open Golf tournament.

Locke's seven-under-par play yesterday gave him a two-stroke lead over the quartet sharing second place: Johnny Palmer, Badin, N. C.; Tommy Wright, Knoxville; Walter Romans, Baltimore and Johnny Weitzel, Reading, Pa.

Palmer scored 31-36, Wright 34-33. Romans rolled up a fine 33-34, while Weitzel, after an even par out, played a blistering 31 coming in.

The be-knickered Locke played a steady 34—two under par—going out. Then—

He got four straight birdies on the home nine, drilling in putts of six to eight feet on the 10th through the 13th holes. He sank another birdie on the 16th.

Three strokes back of the South African—who tied for second in this tournament last year—were three at 68: PGA champion Jim Ferrier of Chicago, Benny Hogan of Hershey, Pa., and Bob Hamilton, representing the home club.

Five others, including National Open champion Lew Worsham of Pittsburgh, were together at 69, while another quintet, including Jimmy Demarest of Ojai, Calif., posted 70s.

'Quick Fall' Rule Hampers Americans

AMES, Ia., April 30—(P)—The "quick fall" has been the downfall of many American wrestlers in the past in Olympic competition, says Hugo Otapolik, director of the Olympic final tryouts here.

Otapolik, who coached the 1932 U. S. Olympic team to a world championship, explained that under Olympic rules a wrestler is considered pinned if both his shoulders touch the mat simultaneously, even if just for a fraction of a second.

Some quick falls were registered in yesterday's first and second round bouts with 172 of the country's top wrestlers trying for 16 Olympic berths. Under Olympic rules a competitor is eliminated by five bad points, three of which are given when a wrestler is thrown.

With matches running on four mats, until early this morning, 49 wrestlers were eliminated. Third round matches will be held this afternoon. There will be also a night round and two more rounds Saturday.

James Eagleton, University of Oklahoma law student, suffered a shoulder dislocation in his first match and had to forfeit both rounds today, thus losing out.

A check of unofficial scoring showed 25 wrestlers still with perfect zero scores.

There were five perfect wrestlers left in each of the 160.5 and 147.5 and heavyweight classes. The heavyweights include Dick Hutton, twice NCAA and Oklahoma A&M champion. Still left in the 147.5 class is Bill Koll of Iowa Teachers, for three years NCAA champion. Jackie St. Clair, Oklahoma A&M, NCAA title holder, won both his matches in the 160.5 pound class.

James Eagleton, University of Oklahoma law student, suffered a shoulder dislocation in his first match and had to forfeit both rounds today, thus losing out.

A check of unofficial scoring showed 25 wrestlers still with perfect zero scores.

There were five perfect wrestlers left in each of the 160.5 and 147.5 and heavyweight classes. The heavyweights include Dick Hutton, twice NCAA and Oklahoma A&M champion. Still left in the 147.5 class is Bill Koll of Iowa Teachers, for three years NCAA champion. Jackie St. Clair, Oklahoma A&M, NCAA title holder, won both his matches in the 160.5 pound class.

The Innocent Impostor

By Renee Shann

COPYRIGHT BY RENEE SHANN; DISTRIBUTED BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: Patience Mond goes to London three times a week to attend dressmaking school. It is the only freedom allowed her by the two old-fashioned aunts who have brought her up and with whom she lives in the country. On the commencing train she meets Paul Taylor, who lives in a neighboring village and who finds himself attracted to the young girl. They date secretly, fall in love. The aunts find out, force Patience to promise not to see Paul again. Paul, meeting Patience as usual on the train, can't understand why she doesn't stand up to them. "Tell your Aunt Helen you're breaking that promise," he admonishes her. "Tell her you're engaged to me and you want to marry me."

VIII

PATIENCE stared at Paul. Her breath caught in her throat. "But I'm not engaged to you—"

"I want you to be."

"I—I couldn't possibly do anything like that without first asking my aunts' permission."

"Holy mackerel!"

"And under the circumstances," she went on desperately, "what chance is there of them giving it?"

"The trouble with you is you're conventional and a prig."

Her eyes flashed.

"I'm not. But marriage is a very serious matter."

"The devil it is! Don't worry. I'm already sorry I suggested it."

"Well, I didn't accept you."

"You've not got the guts. No," he shook his head. "It's all right. We'll call it a day. We wouldn't get on, I can see now. I like a girl with more spirit. Look, I think we've said all there is to say, don't you? If it's all the same to you, I'm going to return to the carriage and read my evening paper."

He went, leaving her standing there alone in the corridor. Tears blinded her eyes. She tried to fight against them but they poured down her cheeks. She didn't go back to the carriage. She stood there in the corridor through the entire journey. As the train drew nearer to Oakley she thought: "He won't let me go like this. He can't if he really loves me." But the station came and he made no move to speak any further to her.

She got out and walked slowly down the platform. She took her bicycle from the shed and rode home knowing that now it was really over. She didn't know quite what it was she'd expected, what she'd hoped might possibly happen. But she'd not dreamed it would be quite like this. That they'd quarrel the way they had.

She opened the front door and went into the sitting room. There sat her aunts, one either side of the fireplace.

"I thought I'd just let you know I was back, Aunt Helen."

Her aunt put down her mending for a moment.

"Did you have an interesting day at the academy, dear?"

"Yes, thank you, Aunt Helen."

"How are you getting on with your work?"

"Very well."

That was all. No mention of Paul. The subject was now closed, never to be reopened.

THE Easter holiday came and for a month Patience didn't go to London. She told herself she was thankful. She was spared the agony of that journey back in the evenings. Knowing Paul was on the train. Sometimes catching a glimpse of him. Having him walk past her with just a curt nod as if she were the veriest stranger.

And then the term started once more. Once more there were the early morning breakfasts. Aunt Alice getting up to see her off. Waving to her from the gate as she bicycled down the lane. Once more there were those return journeys.

The weather now was warmer. Spring was in full glory. The trees were in leaf, the birds sang, wild flowers peeped from the hedgerows. Patience hated it. She wished it were winter with chill dark evenings. Or autumn with the trees each day growing barer. This was a time for happiness and her heart was heavy.

She raced for the train one evening, thinking she was going to lose it. Usually she was punctual, but she'd been kept late by Madame Girard. By Madame Girard surprisingly complimenting her on the progress she'd been making.

Her mind still occupied with the nice things the headmistress had said to her, Patience flung herself into the first available carriage. People shifted to make room for her. She squeezed in between a fat old lady with a Pekinese and a burly middle-aged soldier.

"Just about room for a little 'un," said the soldier cheerfully. "Thank you."

"Paul, darling, don't you think a little air would be a good idea?"

Patience glanced up involuntarily. Her heart seemed to stop beating. Paul was sitting opposite her, and next to him—very, very close to him—was a blonde girl with blue eyes, their blue seeming even deeper since they were fringed with darkened lashes. She was a very pretty girl, Patience thought grudgingly. She wore too much make-up in her opinion, but maybe some men liked it.

Paul leaned forward and opened the window.

"That too much for anybody?" he asked the carriage at large.

"Not for me," said the soldier. "It's blinkin' hot today and it's no good saying it isn't."

"How about you?" Paul asked, looking at Patience. But not as if he knew her. Not as if he'd ever held her in his arms and kissed her.

"It's quite all right, thank you," she said stiffly.

The guard's whistle sounded. Doors slammed down the train. It began to move slowly out of the station.

The blonde girl settled down in her corner and smiled at Paul, a slow intimate smile that told Patience, who didn't mean to keep looking at her, but somehow couldn't prevent herself, exactly the way she felt about him.

Youth on Trial For Killing 14-Yr-Old Boy

Both Were Inmates Of State School At Boonville

By George Sitterly
JEFFERSON CITY, April 30.—(AP)—Jerry Robert Owens was "going to give Threlkeld a scare" when he went through a hole in the wall between their cells last August 31, a Cole county circuit court jury was told today.

The 16-year-old Owens is being tried for first degree murder in the strangulation death of Donald Threlkeld, 14.

Threlkeld was killed shortly after 9 o'clock at night in his dark cell in special detention quarters at the Missouri Training School for Boys at Boonville. The special cells were to keep boys described as "incorrigibles" and ringleaders in mass escapes.

The case was brought from Cooper county to Cole county on a change of venue asked by the attorney appointed to represent young Owens, Thomas G. Woolsey, Sr., of Boonville.

Showed No Emotion
William Greenway of Senath, one of Owens' cellmates, told the jury today he didn't believe Owens planned to kill the younger boy. When they took two tiles out of the wall between the cells, Greenway testified, Owens said he was just going to give a scare to Threlkeld.

As the trial opened, Owens sat quietly between his attorneys, Woolsey and his son, Thomas G. Woolsey, Jr.

He was dressed in a red and white checked sports shirt, a tan sport jacket and brown slacks. He showed no emotion as Greenway described events leading up to the killing.

Greenway said he came into the cell Aug. 30 after being recaptured during an attempted escape. He described the cell as small with one steel bunk and no bedding or mattress. The three inmates traded off, one sleeping on the steel bunk and the other two on the bare concrete floor.

Plumbing Broken
Because the plumbing was broken, he explained, they had to get water from the adjoining cell, occupied by Threlkeld and Jack Sharp. A pivoted tile permitted passage of a tin cup back and forth.

They broke the glass out of the windows to get some ventilation in the hot cell, Greenway told the jury. Once in a while, he added, the boys in the other cell would refuse to give them water. They got dry bread and sometimes water twice a day. He said the cell was pretty bad — "I've been in a lot better places."

When they removed the tiles, he related, the third boy in the cell, Bobby Wimberly, helped Owens through the hole. Their cell was lighted but Threlkeld's was dark.

Put Tiles Back
They put the tiles back so the guard wouldn't notice anything wrong and soon he heard a noise "like somebody gagging or something." Then he heard something fall.

Sharp told Wimberly and Greenway that Owens was killing Threlkeld and the two removed the tiles again to find out what was going on, Greenway said. He now is held at the state penitentiary along with some 70 other former Boonville inmates. They were transferred to the prison under a new law which permits transfer of boys who are incorrigible at the training school.

Through the hole, Greenway testified, they could see that Owens was doing something to Threlkeld but they didn't believe he was killing the younger boy.

Dragged Body
"I'll show you," Greenway quoted Owens as saying. Then, Greenway said, Owens dragged the body over to the hole, held it up and let it fall to the floor.

"Sharp said 'Let's start hollering,'" Greenway related. Their calls brought Major Robert Kirk, former assistant superintendent at the school.

The Greenway said Kirk had a strap in his hand. He described it as of leather, about four feet long, 2 1/2 inches wide and an inch thick. He said inmates were beaten with it although he never had been beaten.

"I saw some of the boys that were, though," he added.

Formal Dance At Country Club Saturday Night
Members of the Country Club, which organization has been undergoing repairs and redecorating, are reminded of the formal opening of the club for the season, Saturday night.

There will be a dance, beginning at 10:00 o'clock, Al Moore's orchestra to play.

Rumors Tell of Soviet Snooping Near Alaska

Only two miles of rough water in the Bering Strait separates Russian territory (Big Diomedes) and American territory (Little Diomedes). Here, where the Soviet Union and the U. S. are close neighbors, rumors are being circulated that Soviet planes and subs are reconnoitering along Alaska's 19,000 miles of coastline. The Army has ordered reinforcements to Alaska, but far short of the "minimum defense" force recently urged on Congress by Chief of Staff Gen. Omar Bradley.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Katie M. Monsees
Mrs. Katie M. Monsees, aged 76 years, died at her home, south of Smithton, Thursday afternoon at 12:15 o'clock. She had been paralyzed since last September.

She was born May 17, 1872, near Versailles, being the only daughter of the late John and Louisa Gehrs.

She was married to M. Phillip Monsees at the home of her parents, April 14, 1892, and to this union of marriage, three children were born.

Her husband preceded her in death six years ago.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Fred Hoehns, Smithton; Mrs. Phillip Cowling, Tipton; and one son, Lloyd Monsees of the home.

Also surviving are six grandchildren: Mrs. George Teter, Rance Hoehns, Miss Jerene Bowline, all of Tipton, and Phillip and Dale Monsees and Caroline Jean Monsees of the home; one brother, Dr. W. Gehrs of Kansas City, and two great grandchildren, Glenda and Mark Teter of Smithton.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Lake Creek Methodist church where she was a member, with the Rev. E. L. Rathert to officiate.

Burial will be in the Smithton cemetery.

The body was taken to the Neumeier funeral home, and later taken to the home.

Mrs. John Weber
Mrs. Margaret May Guyton Weber, 59 years old, of Jefferson City, former Sedalia, and wife of John J. Weber, who built and operated the Weber Ice Cream company, died at the St. Mary's hospital in Jefferson City at 6:30 o'clock this morning. She had been ill since January, was a patient at the St. Mary's hospital in St. Louis in early February and has been in the St. Mary's hospital in Jefferson City three times in the past three months.

Mrs. Weber was born in Harrington, Kas., on January 21, 1889, the daughter of Mrs. Agnes Guyton and the late Joseph Guyton. She went with her parents to Chicago when she was three years old and was reared in that city. She was married to Mr. Weber in Chicago on November 11, 1911, and two years later went to Jefferson City where she has resided since, with the exception of eight years when the family made their home in Sedalia. She was a member of the St. Peter's Catholic church, and the Garden club and Music club in Jefferson City.

Surviving besides her husband and her mother, 82 years old who lives at the Weber home, Orchard Acres, is one daughter, Mrs. Marjorie Jean Basso, who was married on March 29 in the new chapel in the St. Mary's hospital. The wedding had been planned for June but Mrs. Weber had wanted to see her daughter married and it was held earlier in the chapel.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed this morning.

The family home in Sedalia was at 914 West Third street.

Charles R. Byerly
Charles Ragland Byerly, 73 years old, a carpenter, died at his home, 1902 East Fourteenth street, at 7 o'clock this morning.

Mr. Byerly was born in Oblong, Ill., in 1875.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Bertha Frances Byerly, of the home, two daughters, Mrs. Eva Gruffy, of Lawrenceville, Ill., and Mrs. Freda Templeton, of Phoenix, Ariz., one stepdaughter, Mrs. Mary Ireland, of Washington, D. C., one stepson, Arnold Ellis, of the home, one sister, Miss Carrie Byerly, of Miami, Fla., two grandchildren and one great grandchild.

The body is at the Ewing funeral home. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Dorothy Jane Wagner
Dorothy Jane Wagner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Wagner, died Thursday evening at 6 o'clock at the family home 12 miles south of Hughesville.

She was born April 15, 1943.

Surviving besides her parents are seven brothers and two sisters.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Bethlehem church with the Rev. Robb officiating.

The body will remain at the Westbrook funeral home in Houston until the hour of the services.

Mrs. Chas. P. Hirst
Mrs. Eugenia Willis Hirst, 77 years old, wife of Charles P. Hirst, died Thursday morning at her home in Kingsville, Mo.

Mrs. Hirst was born August 1, 1876 near Ottaville, the daughter of Mrs. August Mason and the late Willis Mason.

Surviving besides her husband are five children and three sisters, Mrs. Nona Curl, of Kansas City, and Mrs. Edgar Roessler and Mrs. O. L. Homan both of Ottaville.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Holden.

Mrs. C. E. Messerly
Funeral services for Mrs. Mary McRoberts Messerly, widow of the late Charles E. Messerly, who died early Thursday morning at her home in the Dean apartments, were held at 4:00 o'clock this afternoon, at the McLaughlin funeral chapel, with the Rev. J. E. Melrick, rector of the Calvary Episcopal church officiating.

Friends who served as pallbearers were: W. F. Keyser, William Schien, T. W. Cloney, II, Harold Courtney, John G. Crawford and W. P. Hurley.

Burial was in the family lot in Crown Hill cemetery.

Among relatives from out of town here for the service are two sons, C. E. Messerly, Jr., and Mrs. Messerly, J. M. Messerly and Mrs. Messerly, also Mr. and Mrs. John Ford Messerly and children, Helen and John Henry, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Lamy, all of Kansas City, and Mrs. John McRoberts, Fort Worth, Tex.

Might Drive Reds Underground

NEW YORK, April 30.—(AP)—Passage of a pending congressional bill requiring Communists to register with the justice department would drive the Communist party underground, says William Z. Foster, its national chairman.

If the legislation passes, Foster said last night, party officers and members will be instructed not to comply.

"Registration itself is an insult," he said. "Communists are just as good Americans as can be found in this country. We refuse to be placed in the category of second-class citizens."

Will Fight Suit To Oust Board

JEFFERSON CITY, April 30.—(AP)—Attorney General J. E. Taylor said today he would fight a suit to oust the present State Training School Board and restore its predecessor.

Taylor and Alfred Fleishman, chairman of the new board, conferred last night. The attorney general said he would represent the new board in a Supreme Court test being brought by five of the old board members.

Fleishman confirmed that board members have received notices of the old board's intention to file the suit. It is designed to test the legality of Gov. Phil M. Donnelly's action in dismissing the old board January 30.

Fleishman said he and the other successors appointed by the Governor are "serving in the best of faith."

Many Feeders Folded up

By William Ferris
CHICAGO, April 30.—(AP)—Empty cattle lots dot the midwestern landscape today, a ghostly reminder of last summer's short corn crop. They provide a sad warning to people who like to eat meat.

Market analysts said today the empty feed lots mean a tremendous reduction in meat production, starting in about 30 days.

At this time of year, midwestern farms normally are jammed with cattle undergoing a luscious grain diet prior to being shipped to market. It's that grain, mostly corn, which puts weight on the animals to provide tasty meat. But it isn't that way this year.

H. J. Gramlich, agricultural agent of the Chicago and North Western railway, said "many cattle feeders have temporarily folded up."

"In a three mile strip paralleling our line west of the Omaha stock yards, where normally several hundred thousand cattle are fattened each year, there does not now appear to be a single head," Gramlich said.

WASHINGTON, April 30—During the closing months of the recent war, ex-Secretary of War Robert Patterson remarked to this writer:

"I am worried for fear our present determination to punish the Nazi war criminals will cool off. If we are to prevent future war we must convict and punish several thousand of the guilty, and do it right away. If we don't do it quickly, it may never be done."

Secretary Patterson was referring to the tolerant spirit of the American people. What he didn't foresee was that the chief exponent of letting the Nazis off easy would be his own successor—Kenneth Royall, now secretary of the army.

During the war, Royall made a brilliant defense of the Nazi saboteurs who landed on Long Island by submarine. Appointed as attorney for the saboteurs, his argument was so able that some people seemed almost convinced they should go free.

Now, before the house appropriations committee, he seems equally anxious to forgive other war criminals. In addition, he has summoned Gen. Telford Taylor, able war crimes prosecutor, back to Washington.

Republicans Defend Nazis

Royall's testimony before the house appropriations committee, hitherto secret, has now been made public. It reveals that GOP Congressman John Taber of New York and Richard Wigglesworth, Boston blueblood, were just as anxious as Royall to let Nazi criminals down easily—possibly more so.

Cross-examined by these two congressmen as to why the anti-Nazi trials weren't stopped, Royall replied:

"Last August we eliminated approximately three-fourths of the cases. When I went over there (Germany) I approved that elimination. The reason they were not entirely stopped was that General Clay felt, and convinced me, that to stop suddenly would create a disparity between people who had been de-Nazified and those who had not."

"It is very much of a headache. I think," growled Taber. "I had very firm views against the whole approach to it originally," chimed in the secretary of the army. "When I was there in August I prescribed that only those cases of a limited class could be tried. No additional war-crimes trials will be held except those now in process."

Save Money—Save Nazis

"What would happen if we just pulled the curtain down tomorrow," asked Congressman Wigglesworth, "and said 'no more money'?"

"I don't think it would be terribly serious if we stopped them at all," was Royall's amazing reply. "But I believe the better policy is to let those that are being tried be continued. My initial reaction when I went there in August was exactly what you intimate, that we ought to stop these immediately. I do think the reasons advanced by General Clay were sound."

Cross-examined further by the two Republican congressmen, the secretary of the army made this significant statement about U. S. policy in Germany:

"I agree entirely," he said, "that the prime objective we have in Germany is to build up a strong Germany both politically and industrially. I fully realize that too great an extension of the de-Nazification trials is a danger that must be reckoned with on both these grounds."

Meanwhile, some of the indictments against the famed Krupp munitions executives already have been dropped, while wires are being pulled to let off executives of I. G. Farben. The latter operated a slave-labor camp where thousands of people were killed.

Capital Chaff

Colonel Bertie McCormick, the Chicago Tribune's professional British-hater, walked out on Lord Rothermere at the Associated Press meeting just before his lordship started speaking.

Russell Brines, AP correspondent in Tokyo, reported to AP publishers that General MacArthur has lost a lot of face since the Wisconsin primary. . . . Congratulations to Paul Webb, the Atlanta prosecutor, for his quick crackdown on the Ku Klux Klan. . . . The Securities and Exchange Commission is considering the prosecution of a high official of Otis and Company for his testimony in the Kaiser-Prager financial deal on which Otis and Company took a runaway powder. . . . An orchid to Kiwanis president Dr. Charles W. Armstrong and all Kiwanians for reminding us of Canadian goodwill week. Sometimes we forget our best friends. . . . A blue ribbon to the police of Wilmington, Del., for having the safest traffic city in the USA. . . . Thanks to Ernie Gross, the state department has reversed its former reversal on genocide. That's the mass killing of people because of race or religion. We are now demanding a prompt and strong treaty to prevent mass murder. This should make future Nuremberg trials easier and less susceptible to brass hat or GOP sabotage.

Merry-Go-Round

Though Judge Sam Rosenman denies that he even considered taking a job as Truman's counsel and ghost-writer, he made two secret trips to the White House recently. . . . Forty percent of the students at the Yale law school have joined the "Justice Douglas for President club." . . . Australian Foreign Minister Evatt informed the Washington Merry-Go-Round by trans-Pacific phone that Australia will not permit the United States to revitalize Japan as we did Germany after World War I, and as we are doing again today. MacArthur's policy of rebuilding Japan, says Evatt, is a tragic blunder.

Senator Hatch's plan to retire from the senate and become a U. S. judge in New Mexico may backfire. Truman hasn't decided yet to appoint him. Furthermore, Truman can't appoint him until the end of this congress, because Hatch voted to raise the pay of federal judges and no member of congress can draw a salary which he has voted to increase. . . . Desperately anxious to stem the labor trend to Stassen, Senator Taft and campaign manager Clarence Brown have sent letters to all Ohio labor leaders. Taft cohorts fear that if Stassen makes heavy Ohio inroads, he will have a hard time even being re-elected to the senate in 1950. Taft was elected only by a slim vote in 1944, though running against a weak candidate.

Petticoat Rule in Argentina

Now that he finally holds a commanding majority in the Argentine congress, President Peron is getting ready to change that country's constitution so he can succeed himself in 1952. But the odd fact is that Peron didn't plan or want it that way. A lady is the reason why.

The Glib Gaucho of the River Plate originally had it all figured out to step aside at the end of his six-year term, then put a hand picked candidate in his place. However, some spectacular squabbling inside the Peron family has forced him to revise his plans.

Fuads and spats among Peron's intimates are nothing new, but this time the crisis revolved around the president's beautiful, blonde wife, Dona Evita, who has been at the center of almost every Argentine political blowoff recently.

Senora Peron has evidenced fast-growing political ambitions ever since her husband took office. She has run the Argentine labor department in fact, if not in name. Her radio broadcasts have set the cue for Argentine propaganda. And by the time she returned from her much publicized European tour last summer, Evita had set a definite goal; she wanted to be Argentina's next president.

This is hard to believe and for some months it was assiduously hushed up. But when it finally leaked out, both the army and assorted political elements blew their respective tops.

In fact, the fuss looked so serious last January that prominent Argentine citizens with good contacts inside the government were privately advised to lay in food stocks for a couple of weeks and be prepared to keep off the streets. But the trouble never got to the shooting stage, because Peron, prodded by angry advisers, finally put his foot down and told his precious wife: Nothing doing.

Whereupon, the lady made a compromise proposal: Col. Domingo Mercante, governor of Buenos Aires province and Peron's longtime choice to succeed him) could be president. But Madame Peron would be the vice president.

Believe it or not, the harassed Peron actually tried to sell Col. Mercante this deal. However, Mercante, after consulting army leaders, informed his boss it wouldn't work. He offered instead to make Evita secretary of labor in his cabinet.

Friends of Madame Peron report that when Peron relayed this proposal to his wife, her answer was:

"I will accept no post less than the vice presidency under anyone but you. And don't forget the women—I can use them if I have to."

Evita was referring to the fact that she had helped get the vote for Argentine women, and that they would be registered and ready to cast their ballots by 1952.

So Peron finally came to the conclusion that the only way to keep peace in the country—and the family—was to hold on to the job himself through the next term. A constitutional amendment to permit this is now up before congress and due for obedient ratification within a month.

He's 'Big Enough'

The name of this little doggie is, appropriately, Incomparable Big Enough. A St. Bernard, the mighty canine dwarfs his playmate, Michael Stearns. Incomparable Big Enough was entered in the Los Angeles National Kennel Club Dog Show.

WASHINGTON — (AP)—About nine million industrial workers now have the use of restaurant service in the plants where they work compared with about two and one-half millions before World War II.

LONDON — (AP)—The new British House of Commons now being built from the bomb-blasted ruins of the old one is not expected to be completed before April 1950.

NEW YORK — (AP)—One of every three school children killed in accidents is killed by an automobile.

BOGOTA — (AP)—Since 1928, the population of Bogota, capital of Colombia, has doubled to 440,000.

Our Spring Sale On Coleman Oil Water Heaters

SAVE 15%

...and get this amazing guarantee:

- We hereby GUARANTEE to give you
1. Faster hot water
  2. Lower-cost hot water

than any other oil or electric water heater or your money back. Read this guarantee: Try a Coleman for 15 days. Compare with other oil or electric storage-type heaters of equal size. Coleman must give you hot water faster and at lower cost, or we will take it out and refund your money.

Amazing low fuel cost: A Coleman provides ample hot water for average family of four by burning only about ten gallons of oil a month. Store a whole winter's oil supply in a 50-gallon drum.

Works anywhere . . . town or farm—the Coleman burns fuel oil; no gas or electric connections needed. It's automatic, too—gives you plenty of hot water anytime at the turn of a tap. No off-cycle periods.

George Guilty In Holdup-Killing

PITTSBURGH, Kas., April 30—(P)—James Samuel George, 43, Kansas City, was convicted on Thursday of first degree murder in the holdup-slaying of Gene Williams, 22, son of a Pittsburgh jeweler.
The district court jury, which returned its verdict 20 hours and 10 minutes after beginning its deliberations, recommended life imprisonment.
Williams was shot fatally the night of Jan. 14 when he resisted three men who attempted to rob the jewelry store of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Williams.
George testified at the trial he was in Pittsburgh that evening en route to Texas on a business trip, but was sitting in a drug store across the street at the time the unsuccessful holdup was in progress. He was arrested shortly before midnight Jan. 14, at Afton, Okla.
The jury's verdict was returned at 12:55 p. m., after it had come back into the courtroom this morning to have some testimony read to it. Much of its deliberation was reported to have centered on whether its recommendation should be death or life in prison.
The defense immediately announced it would ask a new trial, and Judge L. M. Resler ruled that the motion must be filed before May 4.
George was returned to the county jail at Girard to await a hearing on the new trial motion. He was held without bail.

O'Neill, Jr., of national railway mediation board; Frank P. Douglass, chairman of the mediation board; C. H. Keenen, vice-president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers; and C. E. McDaniel, vice-president of the switchmen's union. (NEA TELEPHOTO)

Russians 'Like Things American'

NEW YORK, April 30—(P)—An American embassy official returned from Moscow Thursday and said America has "a tremendous fund of good will with the people" of Russia.
Joseph Bulik, who has been agricultural attaché to the U. S. embassy in Moscow for four years said the political situation "is something you feel more here than over there." He added that "when I read the American papers in Moscow, I got scared."
"The Russian people are wonderful," he said. "They like Americans and like things American."

Funeral Of Tom Breneman Saturday

HOLLYWOOD, April 30—(P)—The funeral of Tom Breneman, radio master of ceremonies who died Wednesday, will be held at 11 a. m. Saturday in Church of the Recessional, Forest Lawn Memorial Park.
Dr. Louis H. Evans, pastor of Hollywood Presbyterian church, will officiate, and the King's Men, noted radio quartet, will sing. The body will be cremated and the ashes entombed in Forest Lawn Mausoleum.
Death of the popular entertainer, 47, was ascribed to a heart attack.

Runaway Tank Crushes Car

When a 36-ton General Sherman tank went out of control at Ft. Collins, Colo., it completely crushed a 1941 Sedan, at left, parked in a street. The giant tank had been in a Colorado A. & M. College R.O.T.C. show and was being driven by National Guard officers when it went out of hand. No one was in the car at the time. (NEA TELEPHOTO)

UN, Must Act Soon To Avert Palestine Liquidation

By J. M. Roberts, Jr.
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Close observers of the Palestine situation are considering the possibility that, unless the United Nations can move more quickly and more forcibly than now indicated, the country will be entirely liquidated by the Arab states.
Many reports of the schemes and pressures involved sound fantastic. But the Middle East is the natural habitat of fantasy.
The United Nations world, non-official publication devoted to international affairs, is publishing today a report of a scheme by Brigadier Andrew Patrick Clayton, whom it describes as chief British agent in the Middle East, for division of Palestine among Syria, Lebanon, Trans-Jordan and Egypt. The article contains a text purporting to be an agreement signed by Clayton and officials of the Arab League. Under it the Arab armies would come in as the British retire, with Arab and Jewish residents to become citizens of the country to which they are annexed. Trans-Jordan would be extended to the sea, providing King Abdullah with the port he needs and giving military bases to Britain. The magazine stresses that Clayton may be acting independently of the British government, as he has frequently.
Be Critical Year
Some observers at Lake Success were quoted this week as believing that this critical year would see the partitioning of Palestine—but between Egypt and Trans-Jordan, not between Jews and Arabs.
There is another report, apparently from one Arab faction, that Abdullah plans to proclaim himself King of Palestine with an agreement among the Arab states that he will rule temporarily until a plebiscite can decide whether the country will remain under him or become independent under Palestine Arab control.
One development which is not yet quite clear involves the Grand Mufti. In the latest Arab agreement for joint military action, the war-time enemy of the democracies seems to have been shuffled out of the picture and superseded by Trans-Jordan and Egypt.
The small ray of light thrown off by the Jewish-Arab agreement to avoid fighting in the old walled city of Jerusalem has done little to dispel the darkening cloud over Palestine. There is a strong possibility that even that will not work in the riotous atmosphere.
The Arab armies are gathering. Iraq forces have announced plans for passing through Trans-Jordan to the Palestine battlefield. Abdullah is preparing to move with his Arab Legion, the only crack striking force in the Middle East. Egyptian forces are on the frontier. The Arabs say they will not wait for May 15, when the British mandate ends.
There seems little possibility that, even if the United Nations should authorize a police force to maintain peace, it could arrive in time. The main possibility of avoiding a general outbreak seems to lie in some indications that Arab unity is not all that it is made to appear.
At least some American military observers believe that open war in Palestine will bring immediate Communist intervention.
The seeds of a possible World War are germinating in Palestine today.
